Synopsis

The night of the play has finally arrived. Ben and Alina are set to be acting across from one another in front of an audience of hundreds, with Luciana demanding sensual realism at the expense of their comfort. How far will they be willing to go to give the crowd what they want? And what does it mean if they want it, too? And Alexa, the woman of the house, has a front row seat to it all. Everything hinges on her reaction as she watches a theater performance that seems to reflect her own inner conflicts and desires. Will she come to a decision about what it all means in the end, or will she slip deeper into the forbidden depths of illicit love?

Customer Reviews

The story continues to progress well and the main characters seem real. I have enjoyed the setting and dialogue, the nice word choices get my pulse racing. It is a short story so giving away clues would ruin the experience, just take my word, if you enjoyed the earlier stories you will find this one the best of the lot. Of course, I continue to enjoy the book cover art selection.
