Okinawa, 1945 (A Play)

Synopsis

Okinawa, 1945 is a historical drama (in the form of a play) about the girl nurses of Himeyuri. During the Battle of Okinawa, the nursing shortage in Okinawa forced the Japanese army to conscript young high school girls to take care of wounded soldiers. The shortage of hospitals on the island forced the soldiers and girls into caves around the island. The ensuing drama that occurred between the soldiers and the girl nurses will move you beyond your imagination and shock you since it is such a little known historical fact. The girl nurses held such courage in their hearts and loyalty to their country. A must read for anyone interested in the Battle of Okinawa, relations between Japan and Okinawa, Japan and the U.S. and the resilience of the human spirit.
