Customer Reviews

Fair Play is about Tea Brown, a photographer based in Chicago on assignment to Myrtle Beach, and Nick Wood, quarterback for the South Carolina Hawks & father to four year old Scarlet. They all meet on a plane from Chicago to Myrtle Beach when Scarlet starts kicking Tea's seat. Scarlet takes an instant liking to Tea, and both Tea and Nick are attracted to each other. When Nick finds out Tea is a professional photographer, he asks if she would take some pictures of him and Scarlet. She gives him her business card and he tells her he'll call to set up a photoshoot. Tea checks into the cheap hotel her magazine paid for and has a couple of days of work and after she's sent off her latest pictures to her boss, she logs into a dating app and chats with "Emmett", who seems very nice. At that same time, Nick is on a dating app, chatting with "Red" and enjoying himself. They have no idea they are talking with each other. The next day, Nick calls Tea but she doesn't answer, so he leaves a voicemail. She calls him back and they set up a time for doing the photoshoot. That evening, Tea goes to eat some takeout on the beach and runs into her old best friend from high school, and they catch up. When Tea goes back to her hotel, she is awakened in the middle of the night by the sound of someone trying to open her door. She is terrified and even after finding out it was just a drunk man mistaking her room for his, she checks out the next morning. After the photoshoot, Nick offers for Tea to stay with him and Scarlet for the rest of her stay in Myrtle Beach. She really likes Nick and is smitten with Scarlet and just can't say no to Scarlet's excited pleas for her to stay. I don't give spoilers, so that's as much of the story as I will tell.

Tia Brown never felt comfortable around people, they thought she was weird. She had her own style and look that included tattoos and piercings, but people never saw past that. Her social life has also taken a dive with college and work being full focus, Tia had even signed up to dating agencies hoping to find someone who would look beyond a profile picture. (or lack this is) So when she finds her dream job as a Photography Tia knows this is her calling and a way she can express herself, but working for Crush a famous magazine has only been for money, her really passion was really life and pictures in the moment. When her next assignment offers Myrtle Beach she jumps at the chance to escape. But on the flight out her life changes forever when she meets a beautiful blue eyed 4 year old little girl and her handsome father who leaves her speechless, asking her for family photo's after Scarlet becomes enraptured by what she does. But then she gets to her hotel room and finds a notification on Match Pro and this guy sounds like the perfect match. Nicolas Wood is a famous Football player who became a single father 4 years ago when his wife passed during childbirth. But he found a way to survive when he found the perfect Nanny called Mimi, she was a God sent that is until she has a fall that puts her out of action. (Bearing in mind she is 72) With training and games to play, the last week has been tiring and he has felt nothing but guilt over how his daughter Scarlet is coping. The flight home pulls him up short when his daughter connects with a beautiful woman who sits in front of them like he has never known before.
