If you are a fan of THE SOPRANOS, THE GODFATHER or RAY DONOVAN, you will relish THE CAPO'S PRAYER. A page turner that reads like wildfire, it sheds so much light on the unique, passionate and often tumultuous relationship between two unlikely characters, Anna and Tristano: a genteel Southern Belle writer and a dashing Italian who virtually has two sides to his persona...reading how these two characters make their love work is fascinating. The poetry of Fred Heckart that often prologues the chapters - is spellbinding and a lovely way to offer the reader a metaphor for what is to follow. There is much in this compact novella, the first of a trilogy by author Morgan.

Great read! A captivating story of love, life and family from the point of view of the wife of a high-ranking Italian mafia Capo, full of intriguing characters and intense passion! The collection of poems written by Fred Heckart at the start of each chapter, really pull you in. I can't wait for volume 2!!!

Amazingly stunning, passion filled, I couldn't put it down. Great characters very good story plot.

Can't wait to read the next book. A real cliff hanger that will leave you stunned. Hope to see this in a movie form soon.

Extraordinary is the only word worthy for this incredible introduction to The Capo's Prayer. Intense, wildly engaging, and hot! A must read book. Can't wait for the next installment!

I thoroughly enjoyed the excitement and intrigue in the story line!! I can't wait for the next chapter!!
