Customer Reviews

Great addition to the series! Not as long as the other volumes, but it matters very little for this story. It picks up right where volume 10 left off. The story has great pacing and the dialogue between the companions is exceptional as always. There truly wasn't a moment that I wasn't enamored by the dialogue between Holo and Lawrence. And which I'm happy to say the book was absolutely flooded with their banter to the point where I think that a permanent grin has made its home on my face. I'm going to have to re-read a few more times to be sure I didn't miss out on any clues or hidden meanings, because the author sure seems to like to do that kind of thing. Like the rest of the series, an absolute must read.

This volume of the manga (if this is on the page for novel 12, STOP READING NOW) adapts the rest of the fourteenth novel. The artwork is of the same quality it's always been, but I'm starting to notice a bit of a jarring discrepancy between the delicate lines in the art and the severe, dark lettering in the speech bubbles. It's been a while since I read the novel, but I remember it being more exciting than this. Nevertheless, the story content is still amazing. At this rate, I can see maybe four more volumes in this series, MAYBE five, but no more. The end is quickly approaching, and I'm really looking forward to a certain scene from the end of the Coin of the Sun arc. Are you hype?

Must get if you already purchase previous light novels

Great book. Can't wait for the next.

I just simply love the Spice and Wolf series so I'm always looking forward to the release of every new volume. So far, each one has been as good as I've hoped so you don't have to worry about that.

Very well written story

I really enjoy the story. Both the development of the main character,s and the others those they encounter within the story are well done.

A fun addition to the story. You also get an interesting new character...
